Tryon Riding & Hunt Club (TR&HC) Education Scholarship Information

TR&HC is proud to support equine enthusiasts in Polk, Henderson, Rutherford, Spartanburg, and Greenville counties. This year the organization will continue to offer educational scholarships to high school graduating seniors and those individuals currently attending an institution of higher learning who seek further individual development through additional educational programs.

Amount of scholarship may vary, but will be no lower than $500. Recipients of the TR&HC Education Scholarship must meet the following criteria:

Either a graduating senior accepted to a higher educational program or an individual currently entered in a higher educational program. First priority for award selection will be given to high school seniors.

Be a member of a local/national equine organization such as TR&HC, BRHJA, U.S. Pony Club, Tryon Hounds, Green Creek Hounds, USEF, USEA or actively participating in the equine industry in North Carolina Counties of Polk, Hendersonville, Rutherford and/or South Carolina Counties of Spartanburg and Greenville.

Those applicants demonstrating the greatest financial need will be considered first in the awards process. Complete an application, financial need statement and interview. Applicants may not be related to any TR&HC Board of Director member, officer, or employee.

Deadline:

Applicants may download an application from the TR&HC website: www.trhc1925.org. Applications must be submitted by May 15th. Each applicant will be contacted for an interview in late May.

Award:

The TR&HC Education Scholarship will be awarded in late May.

The scholarship recipient will be encouraged to speak to local civic groups about their award and the benefit equine activities have made in their lives.
