

2019 College Scholarship Program

TR&HC is proud to support equine enthusiasts in Polk, Henderson, Rutherfordton, Spartanburg, and Greenville counties. This year the organization will continue to offer educational scholarships to high school graduating seniors and those individuals currently attending an institution of higher learning who seek further individual development through additional educational programs.

Amount of scholarship may vary, but will be no lower than $500.

Recipients of the TR&HC Education Scholarship must meet the following criteria:

Either a graduating senior accepted to a higher educational program or an individual currently entered in a higher educational program. First priority for award selection will be given to high school seniors.

Be a member of a local/national equine organization such as the TR&HC, BRHJA, U.S. Pony Club, Tryon Hounds, Green Creek Hounds, USEF, USEA or actively participating in the equine industry in North Carolina Counties of Polk, Hendersonville, Rutherfordton and South Carolina Counties of Spartanburg and Greenville.

Those applicants demonstrating the greatest financial need will be considered first in the awards process.

Complete an application, financial need statement and interview.

Applicants may not be related to any TR&HC Board of Director member, officer, or employee.

Deadline: Applications must be submitted by May 1, 2019.

Award: The TR&HC Education Scholarships will be awarded on June 1, 2019.

The scholarship recipient will be encouraged to speak to local civic groups about their award and the benefit equine activities have made in their lives.
